

The Essential Weekend Away

2-4 December 2005
in the historic Buckden Towers

fabulous people
delicious food
mind-hammering conversation
crazy games
Christian thinking
outdoor activities
happy days
international culture
rest & relaxation
wild dancing

this essential event is brought to you by the Christian Graduate Society
www.cam.ac.uk/societies/cgs/

email mark on mm525@cam.ac.uk to get your questions answered.

More info please:

Get a weekend away from Cambridge to meet new people and relax. Buckden Towers, Cambridgeshire, is a 15th century fortified manor. It was once used as a palace by the Bishops of Lincoln. All activities are optional... If it takes your fancy, there will be times for Bible study, prayer and worship. Everybody is welcome: whether you are a member of CGS or not; any faith; any nationality. You are guaranteed to make new friends. We will leave at 4pm Friday and return at 5pm Sunday. Alternative arrangements are possible. Email mm525 with any questions.

Check the small print:

The weekend will cost about £50 per person, including food, travel and lodging. Reserve your place now by sending a deposit of £20, or the full amount of £50, as a cheque by UMS to:

Mark Minichiello, Gonville and Caius MCR.

Make the cheque payable to "Christian Graduate Society". You must include with this the "booking form" below, or send the same details electronically to mm525.
You will receive a confirmation email.

Sign me up now!

Name:

Email:

Phone:

College: